STEP 2: Notify the Loyola EMS System office

- Once you have completed your portion of the renewal process with IDPH, notify Yamary Crespo.
- Submit a copy of your current AHA BLS (CPR) card and Driver's License to Yamary Crespo. Non-AHA cards are not acceptable.
- Complete the LEMSS EMS Personnel Data Form (loyolaems.com), including SSN (a state law), in its entirety and submit to Yamary Crespo.

STEP 3: If you meet criteria for Pre-Hospital Provider renewal

- The LEMSS will re-approve your Pre-Hospital Provider license and IDPH will issue a new Pre-Hospital Provider license (see LEMSS Policy 400.7 or 500.15 for EMDs).
- You should expect to receive your new Pre-Hospital Provider license from IDPH within 2 weeks. If you do not receive your license within this period, notify your department EMS Coordinator and Yamary Crespo at the Loyola EMS System office.
- Provide a copy of your Pre-Hospital Provider license to your department EMS Coordinator (or dispatch agency director/administrator for EMDs) and Yamary Crespo. Keep the original on file in a place where you can easily retrieve it.

LATE FEE

- If the renewal information and fees are received by IDPH after the license expiration date, but within 60 days after that date, the Pre-Hospital Provider will be assessed an additional $50 late fee by IDPH that must be paid before the license will be renewed.

NOTE: After the Pre-Hospital Provider license expiration date, your license is considered "lapsed" by IDPH. IDPH allows for a 60-day period after expiration to renew a lapsed license.
YOU MAY NOT FUNCTION AS PRE-HOSPITAL PROVIDER WITH A LAPSED OR EXPIRED LICENSE.

LEMSS "INDEPENDENT" PROVIDERS

- Providers in the Loyola EMS System who are considered "independents" should contact the Loyola EMS System office for renewals, with name/address changes, submission of BLS cards or Driver's Licenses, and CE.

NOTE: "Independent" status with IDPH is different from independent status within the LEMSS. If you have completed System Entry with the LEMSS, you are NOT considered an independent with IDPH. Do NOT follow the IDPH directions for submission of renewal documents directly to IDPH, except as described above, if you are an independent within the Loyola EMS System
